

Our Attentiveness to God

11/01/09

Text: Deuteronomy 6:4-9

“Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.”
(ESV)

The depth and intimacy of our relationship with God depends on our willingness to give attention to God.

Notes:

Are you distracted or attentive in your relationships? Try this challenge if you dare! Ask you spouse, children, co-workers and peers if they think you are too busy (distracted). Be careful, the results might impact your daily planner!

Our Attentiveness to God

11/01/09

Text: Deuteronomy 6:4-9

“Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.”
(ESV)

The depth and intimacy of our relationship with God depends on our willingness to give attention to God.

Notes:

Are you distracted or attentive in your relationships? Try this challenge if you dare! Ask you spouse, children, co-workers and peers if they think you are too busy (distracted). Be careful, the results might impact your daily planner!

