Meet Dan Small, Jim Tostrud and Tracy Breen at Wild Game Feast

Dan Small of WMVS-TV's Outdoor Wisconsin, Jim Tostrud of Wildlife Visions and Tracy Breen, outdoor writer, will appear in person at Kenosha Bible Church's third annual Wild Game Feast event on Saturday, March 20th, beginning at 2 p.m., followed at 5:30 p.m. by dinner and a program. Random drawings for door prizes and a silent auction will be held throughout the event.

Dan Small will host workshops on steelhead/salmon fly fishing and spring turkey hunting; Jim Tostrud will conduct workshops on hunting for deer, guiding turkeys, and filming hunts as well as techniques for catching more fish; and Tracy Breen will deliver the keynote address, "Big Game on a Budget," filled with practical suggestions for affordable and even family-friendly hunts of white tail, moose and elk. Other demonstrations include dog training by the WISILL Hunting Retriever Club, fly fishing and a kids' casting contest.

The dinner will feature a delicious sampling of fish and wild game meals prepared by avid hunters and fishermen from the church plus chicken nuggets for kids and other "cautious" eaters.

Advance reservations are required. Cost is $10 for adults and $5 for kids ages 4-11 (3 and under eat free). Tickets are on sale through March 13th by calling 652-4507 or using the order form at kenoshabible.org/wildgame.

NOTE: Wild Game is NOT from an APPROVED source. These MEATS may not have been inspected or PROCESSED at an APPROVED facility. Some or all of the Wild Game has been donated.

Kenosha Bible Church, now in its 88th year, is located at 5405 67th Street in Kenosha, Wisconsin. For information visit kenoshabible.org or call 652-4507.
